

2025: Exhibitions with loans from the NL

[Note: the exhibitions are listed in the language in which they were shown.]

Japanese woodcuts at the Museum Franz Gertsch

The exhibition 'Shin-hanga' at the Museum Franz Gertsch showcases Japanese woodcuts from the 1920s to the 1960s. The exhibited woodcuts combine traditional techniques with modern motifs. The exhibition focuses on iconic views of Switzerland and Japan by Hiroshi Yoshida. They are presented alongside works by other 'Shin-hanga' artists. The exhibition also features four works from the archive of the Swiss National Library's Prints and Drawings Department. 14.06.2025–31.08.2025.

Doris Stauffer's works in La Chaux-de-Fonds

Doris Stauffer was an artist, activist and co-founder of the F+F School of Experimental Design in Zurich. She championed new methods of learning and feminist issues. Doris Stauffer's archive is held by the Swiss National Library's Prints and Drawings Department. The exhibition 'Doris Stauffer – I am a snow plough' at the Musée des beaux-arts in La Chaux-de-Fonds includes around 50 works from our collections.
